REASON GROUP LOGO USAGE GUIDELINES

This document outlines the approved Reason logos for internal and external use. While efforts have been made to standardise logo usage, there may be occasions that require custom applications.

For guidance on using the Reason logo outside of these guidelines, please email marketing@reason.com.au

The primary teal logo (Fig. 1), should be given preference over all other versions for brand communications and external use. This includes co-branded presentations, documents, and other working files with clients.

The white logo on a grey or dark background (Fig. 2) should only be used when the primary logo is not suitable or does not stand out effectively to ensure max visibility.
